

CASE NAME: CRYPTIC NON-CROSSWORD

ATTENDING OFFICER(S): CHRIS MOORE
BOSTON POLICE DEPARTMENT
CRIME LOCATION: GRANARY BURYING GROUND

A cryptic square of alphabetic evidence was left at the scene. Perhaps solving these equally cryptic clues will help you filter out the irrelevant data.

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| T | M | E | D | R |
| C | A | P | U | E |
| M | N | T | A | S |
| C | E | A | L | T |
| O | S | N | D | E |

Back home following true test (5)

Aluminum, Tellurium share change (10)

Popular wind toys found in Kawasaki testing (5)

Strange bowel joint (5)

Excavations, bull fighter, exclamation found in high school (5)

Cardinal direction, unit of energy gains, for example, hidden holiday decoration (6, 3)

Atrocious bad grade with university found in leatherworking tool (5)

Leak a lost party (5)

Unit I respect possesses traction control devices (5)

Neptune's path: it follows globe (5)

Fish struggle (8)

Innate ability burst out audibly (5)

Circuit board for Ethernet transmission after input/output consisting of charged particles (5)

Trapped in trivial sized glass containers (5)

Opening delight (8)

Odd penis part required for humans to stand erect (5)

Awkward motion stymies first graffiti artist (7)

Different era to speak (5)

Reject garbage (6)

Racket sport: a threatening combination, so to speak (6)

Rations of Thai currency originally became a habit to save (5)

Unfortunately dying, I yell obediently (10)

Gracious chaps lead four near Illinois (5)

Vaguely steal smallest amount (5)

Jittery setup succeeded unexpectedly (5)

Advertisement infects, eludes adventures (9)